

60001113650.txt

Net Neutrality needs to stay just that! Neutral! You would literally be wiping out any chances of any new internet companies including streaming businesses, new social media businesses or any other new or small internet businesses from having a chance at competing in the market. You would indirectly be creating multiple monopolies! Keep the internet free and do NOT allow telecommunication companies to alter data speeds for different internet business services or companies!.