

60001113824.txt

I object to internet neutrality. I do not want my service slowed or made into tiers. I like things the way they are. Start ups can compete now with big companies such as Facebook and Google.