Re: Viacom Inc. Application for Review, MB Docket No 14-150
Viacom Inc. Petition for Reconsideration, FCC File No. BPCDT-20130528AJP,
Facility ID No. 8653

Dear Ms. Dortch:

We submit this letter on behalf of Cablevision Systems Corporation (“Cablevision”) in response to two pleadings submitted by Viacom Inc. (“Viacom”) on July 6, 2015 in the above-referenced proceedings: an Application for Review of the Media Bureau’s June 5, 2015 “Declaratory Ruling” in MB Docket No. 14-150 and a Petition for Reconsideration of the Bureau’s June 5, 2015 “Letter to Counsel” in FCC File No. BPCDT-20130528AJP. The two Viacom pleadings, which are essentially identical, request that the Bureau advise the parties to these proceedings that Cablevision will not be required to carry WJLP on cable channel 33 unless and until certain conditions are met.

Cablevision hereby clarifies that it is not seeking any modification or clarification of the Declaratory Ruling or Letter to Counsel and, as stated in the June 26, 2015 brief amicus curiae filed jointly by Cablevision and Time Warner Cable Inc. with the D.C. Circuit opposing the mandamus petition of PMCM TV, LLC (“PMCM”), licensee of WJLP, Cablevision intends to take timely action with respect to PMCM’s carriage and channel placement elections, consistent with the Commission’s rules and as provided in the Commission’s June 5, 2015 Letter to Counsel.

Sincerely,

/s/

Tara M. Corvo
