David Lawson, Hank Hultquist, and Gary Phillips had a call with Lisa Hone and Melanie Godschall.

During the calls, the participants discussed the substantial, direct, and verifiable benefits that the AT&T/DIRECTV merger will deliver to tens of millions of consumers. The participants also discussed voluntary commitments that will provide the Commission with further assurance that the transaction will serve the public interest and deliver benefits to consumers.

The Commission should promptly approve the transaction so that consumers can begin to enjoy the resulting pro-competitive, public interest benefits.

In accordance with section 1.1206 of the Commission's rules,<sup>1</sup> this letter is being filed electronically with your office for inclusion in the public record.

Respectfully submitted,

Maureen R. Jeffreys
Counsel for AT&T Inc.
