

60001123297.txt

This is ridiculous. The internet needs to stay open. We cannot pave the way for the corrupt lobbying of communication corporations. Time-Warner and Comcast are monopolies and they already have more control and influence than a single person can truly imagine. The net needs to stay neutral and you cannot give more control to these organizations that already play in a unfair field.