

Radio Bilingüe, a Latino community California nonprofit, with a network of twelve full power FM noncommercial radio stations serving the Latino community with reliable self-help information, submits its comments in this matter. Our position is to support the CETF's comments to the FCC dated August 31, 2015. In particular, we urge the FCC to adopt the 5 Recommendations they outlined as "critical elements of a successful broadband Lifeline program."