

60001323828.txt

So many people can not afford to pay for cable, or the internet. Do not take away the only way they may have of keeping in touch with and in contact with the outside world. Growing up TV was always free, it is nothing but GREED that has now taken over.