

60001324502.txt

Net neutrality must be preserved, this proceeding should not be passed. Corporations cannot commercialize the internet. Americans need access to free information taking this would undermine our values as a democracy and our right to information.