

60001325333.txt

Long before I moved into Morongo Valley, the town had an antenna that serviced the area. With mountains all around us, this was the only tv reception available. The antenna has been turned off leaving us with no broadcast options. Cable is not available in most of the area, and satellite is unaffordable for most resident. Supposedly, we pay for the antenna on our property taxes. Can anything be done to make the county turn the antenna back on????