

60001325655.txt

Please do not continue to promote monopolies like Time Warner Cable and Comcast who consistently rank as the most hated service providers in America. Do not give them any special authority. If you want to do something to them, then nationalize them and use their outrageous profits to make our internet speed the fastest in the world and the cost the cheapest in the world. Right now our world standings are abysmal considering we are the wealthiest nation in the world.