RE: Structure and Practices of the Video Relay Service program, CG Docket No. 10-51: Telecommunications Relay Services and Speech-to-Speech Services for Individuals with Hearing and Speech Disabilities, CG Docket No. 03-123, Notification of Substantive Change

Dear Secretary Dortch:

Pursuant to Section 64.606(f)(2)(ii) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §64.606(f)(2)(ii), ASL Services Holdings, LLC ("ASL/Global VRS") hereby advises the Commission and TRS Fund Administrator that effective December 1, 2015, ASL/Global VRS is opening a new call center located at [REDACTED].

ASL/Global VRS affirms that this is a commercial location. Video Interpreters will be fully trained ASL/Global VRS employees and are subject to the Company's practices, policies, and procedures. ASL/Global VRS is equipping this location to have full access to its automatic call distribution platform and features including, but not limited to, emergency 911 access, registration database access, and to otherwise meet the applicable requirements set forth in the Commission's mandatory minimum standards, 47 C.F.R. §§64.604 et seq., as amended, and the Telecommunications Relay Service Fund Administrator's reporting, monitoring, and filing requirements. This call center will operate on a perpetual (24 hours per day) basis.

Name and contact information for Center Manager is:

ASL/Global VRS new call center is being deployed to further expand the Company's [REDACTED] operations, while enhancing ASL/Global VRS' ability to serve an expanding subscriber base generally. This call center will appear on subsequent bi-annual Call Center Reports. The deployment of this call center will be transparent to the public and will not result in a disruption of service. Pursuant to Section 64.606(f)(2)(ii) of the Commission's rules this Notification of Substantive Change is provided sixty (60) days prior to the deployment of this call center.

Request for Confidential Treatment. Request for Confidential Treatment. Pursuant to Section 0.459 of the Commission's rules,¹ and "Exemption 4" of the Freedom of Information Act,² ASL respectfully requests that the above information be deemed confidential and protected, accordingly. This information constitutes "trade secrets" as set forth in Section 0.457 of the Commission's rules,³ in that the information reveals the location of Company call centers that would be useful to competitors. Further, these Documents contain highly confidential information not intended for public consumption. ASL would not otherwise make these Documents publically available under any circumstance. Release of these Documents to the public could cause ASL irreparable and inestimable harm. ASL requests that the Documents be withheld from public inspection, accordingly. Should disclosure of the Documents be requested, ASL requests that it be informed of such request so that it may take appropriate action to safeguard its interests.

In accordance with the Commission's May 31, 2012 Second Protective Order in the above-referenced proceeding, DA 12-858, an original and one (1) copy of this letter and attachment and two (2) redacted copies of this letter are enclosed. Two confidential copies of this letter have been sent via U.S. Mail to Mr. Gregory Hlibok, Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau, Federal Communications Commission, 445 12th Street, S.W., Room 3-B431, Washington, D.C. 20554. Pursuant to the Commission Disability Rights Office's May 7, 2012 guidance for submission of reports required by the telecommunications relay service rules, a confidential version, and separate redacted public version are being submitted electronically to TRSreports@fcc.gov. A public inspection copy has been filed with in the Commission's electronic comment filing system.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Questions may be directed to the undersigned.

Sincerely,

ASL SERVICES HOLDINGS, LLC

Gabrielle Joseph
Chief Operations Officer
