Comments
on Behalf of
COHEN, DIPPELL AND EVERIST, P.C.

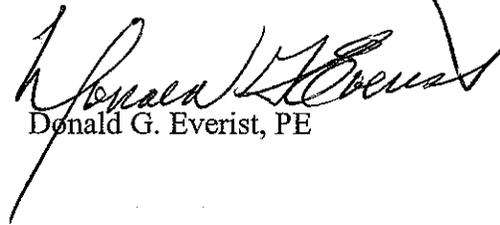

The following comments are submitted on behalf of Cohen, Dippell and Everist, P.C. ("CDE") and is in response to the July 17, 2015 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking ("NPRM") and Order dated August 25, 2015 released by the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC"). CDE and its predecessors have practiced before the FCC for over 70 years in broadcast and telecommunications matters. The firm or its predecessors have been located in Washington, DC since 1937 and performed professional consulting engineering services to the communications industry.

The undersigned is licensed as a Professional Engineer in the District of Columbia and has been in continuous employment with this firm or its predecessors for over fifty (50) years.

This firm urges that all electronic devices that are covered by the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") Rules be specific and unambiguous on how and what rule it is in compliance. This will assist the FCC in the future in its monitoring of various electronic devices.

The above is very important as there is an effort underway to monitor and, where necessary, report devices that are not in compliance with applicable FCC Rules. This endeavor is anticipated to cover the entire FCC regulated spectrum.

Respectfully Submitted
