

60001332602.txt

I strongly urge the FCC to ensure that networks such as ASPIRE that allow Black voices like mine to be heard and seen will continue to be available to me and others in the HBCU community.