

60001333747.txt

As a Clark Atlanta alum with a mass communications degree, going to an HBCU made me realize the importance of black television stations such as Aspire TV. Please keep them on the air as they are one of the few places on tv where you can see football games from HBCU's.