

60001333892.txt

Don't auction off any more frequencies that low power tv stations use. Millions of people cannot afford pay tv and depend on over the air television for news and weather information at a minimum.