

60001334076.txt

I am concerned that Charter's purchase of Time Warner Cable and Bright House Networks may result in the loss of independent and minority owned networks showcasing diverse voices like ASPIRE. Currently, Time Warner Cable and Bright House both carry ASPIRE; however Charter does not and I would like the FCC to ensure that any acquisition by Charter be conditioned by a commitment for Charter to continue carrying this network.