Chairman Wheeler,

I'm writing to urge you to restore broadband competition by fixing the broken market for high-capacity broadband lines. The FCC must address anti-competitive behavior in this market to reach its goal of delivering better, faster, cheaper broadband to all Americans. The future of our information economy depends on it. To make internet necessary for all Americans to deal with such issues as Social security and food stamps and then allow a slowest access to cost $46.00 a month is outrageous. Susan Smith
