

60001335056.txt

Concerned that based on history of Charter Communications unfair treatment of independent networks, allowing it to make a mega merger seems anti-American. Unless we can protect smaller independent programming networks from being silenced through unfair business practices, America's first amendment will eventually be buried. Please, ensure that Americans have the choice of where they receive news and information. Otherwise, information from single source is only propaganda.