

60001336676.txt

One America News should be included in the programming of Charter Communications if their proposed merger is approved. One America News is a valuable source of news information and Charter Communications should allow competitive programming if they intend to eliminate an alternative company by acquiring it through merger. The United States needs more choices for informational programming, not less.