

60001337425.txt

I want internet service providers classified as common carriers. Also, we as people living in the United States should not have to pay ridiculous prices for horrible internet service. We are one of the worst countries to provide internet and providers charge absurd amounts for it.