

60001338794.txt

Do not allow this transfer to take place. It is unfavorable to small business and counter productive to a free enterprise system. Allowing mega companies to form places America in a position where the very survival of these companies becomes a national security risk. It is better to allow smaller companies to compete more favorable in the market than a merger of mega companies.