

60001338798.txt

The last thing Free Speech needs is more consolidation of cable/fiber optics content carriers at this time. The impact on receiving live/current news outlets will be troublesome and subject to carrier whims and agendas, since no one outlet presents unbiased reporting these days. It is vitally important for citizens to have unfettered access to multiple viewpoints other than "talk" shows.