

Dear FCC,

Yes, we need a test code for WEA. This is for the safety of all citizens that we make sure the system is tested on a regular basis to make sure the message is getting out there. Also it would be ideal to be able to send out WEA messages with more than 90 characters to get the correct information to our citizens in case of an emergency.

Sincerely,

Patrick A. Harvey