

60001340364.txt

There should be no approval of this merger application without the inclusion of OANN TV programming which presents the conservative views of all facets of life. OANN, although privately owned, should not be excluded from television programming by mega corporations, which may seek to develop a totally partisan network versus a bipartisan presentation to it's audiences.