

60001340837.txt

I wish to express my support for the protection, fair and open competition for the One American News Network and the many independent small network providers. This not to say big is bad but it can, and usually does, limit competition and growth.