

60001342608.txt

A condition of the merger should be to require the new carrier to provide One America News Network, an independent news network not affiliated with the ownership of the two merging parties. The two merging parties will consolidate too much news outlet ownership to be aligned with the US constitution's 1st amendment protections unless the carriers are required to carry third party news outlets.