Independent news sources such as One America News Network inform our citizens and protect our democracy in a time when access to news not filtered and slanted by liberal media is hard come by indeed. Charter Communications, a company that has filed bankruptcy multiple times in the last 10 years, is preparing to acquire two competitors, Time Warner Cable and Bright House Networks. In this case, bigger is not better. Charter Communications has a history of offering unfavorable and anti-competitive terms to independent programmers and flatly refuses to carry One America News Network. To allow Charter to rapidly expand when it has had trouble simply running its own business and mistreats independent programmers is not good for America. We do not need another overbearing, over controlling, greedy monopoly running yet another service upon which Americans have, thanks to the rampant liberalization of our newspapers, become dependent. In this case I believe smaller is most definitely better for America.
