

60001345992.txt

Initially I do not think continued merger of organizations providing news services should be permitted. There are fewer sources of news as various organizations which either provide news or the companies broadcasting news have merged. The reduced level of competition hurts consumer choice.

In addition, the fact that the merged company would not broadcast OAN should also serve to prevent the merger of the companies.