

60001345994.txt

She was not in anyway giving biased comments nor was she oppressing anyone by what she said. She was giving her own opinion on the subject just as any other news anchor whether conservative or liberal. Limiting her voice would be oppressive just as would be when limiting anyone else to their right of free speech and freedom of press