

60001348534.txt

I am writing in to disagree with this merger. Charter Communication is not a unbiased company. It does not serve the public well to not have fair and unbiased reporting available to them. The people pay for services with the other companys involved and have access to the channels they want. Charter has refused to carry those channels.