

60001348556.txt

I am against the merger. We need to make sure that independent networks maintain their positions in the industry. Charter Communications that is trying to acquire Time Warner is an ill run, ill managed corporation that has filed for bankruptcy no less than 10 times in it's existence.