

60001349064.txt

if this merger should happen, it is extremely important that charter/time warner keep independent news stations like OANN on the air and available to the American people, so we can get both sides of the news and not just the news from mainstream media, which has become very biased and one-sided. OANN has a very good news coverage of world and US news.