

60001349314.txt

Making this merger may promote bad selections for the customer base. The rights of the people to view all their selective channels is a must. I would like OAN(network channel) to remain available for all customers and not be sliced from the channel selections. I view this as a political hack, and not a monetary concern for the services.