I do not have a dog in this fight. Even so it greatly concerns me as a citizen of this country.

As I understand it, many low power TV stations (LPTV) and translator TV stations will be repacked and taken without compensation by the federal government.

The government should not be permitted to confiscate spectrum from low power television station operators without compensation, and then auction it off to the highest bidder.

Taking legitimate businesses away to benefit another business is wrong. Those are the actions of an immoral, greedy, dictatorship, not the United States of America.
