

60001350297.txt

As a consumer of worthy news, I would disagree with a merger that will silence the voice of democracy, think about silencing worthy news for news for the masses, this office should be fair for the independent companies on cable networks.

Regards,
Sandra Parson