

60001350350.txt

I support net neutrality. No one has the right to control internet content and I also support free internet services nationwide. I pay $75 a month for spotty service at best. I'm also against the media mafia charging fees to those providing internet content.