

60001350455.txt

I admit I have no idea how these mergers work nor how a provider is included (or not) in a communications company lineup.

I watch OAN and do like the way they present the national and international news - they cover more topics and usually with more detail than the other news feeds. I would like the FCC to make sure OAN is allowed to compete on a fair and even playing field when it comes to being included in the new companies line-up.