

60001350577.txt

Charter communications is already too big and too controlling. We need more access to smaller independently owned companies presenting the news etc. so that we can get the truth and not one-sided information. We do not want in monopoly controlling the news media in this country .