

60001352063.txt

The signal for all television providers is incredibly weak in Eastern Long Island. Is there any mandate for increasing the signal so that we have the same choice of cable or antenna that New York City people have?