

60001352607.txt

America doesn't need communication monopolies, or companies that are belligerent to customers, and contributors. If Charter isn't able to operate without filing for bankruptcy as it stands now how can they possibly do so by taking over other companies, This will only allow them to force unreasonable costs on those who will no longer have an alternative.
Please say "NO" to this merger/acquisition.