

60001352962.txt

If the FCC approves the merger of the mega cable networks, it is imperative that independent news, specifically OneAmerica News be carried on the cable networks. I am concerned that with a virtual MONOPOLY of Cable TV, our news remain independent of the news of the cable monopoly.

Furthermore, what ever happened to the FCC policy on language and morality. The cable argument is not valid.