Re: AT&T Mobility LLC (AT&T) v. Iowa Wireless Services LLC (iWireless), Proceeding No. 15-259; File No. EB-15-MD-007

Dear Counsel:

On December 4, 2015, iWireless and AT&T filed a Joint Status Report and Motion for Ruling<sup>1</sup> addressing the (i) exchange and filing of Best and Final Offers, (ii) proposed redactions of certain information from the current complaint, and (iii) use of arbitration materials in the complaint proceeding. Because the parties have reached an agreement on a proposed order of procedure as a result of the discussions fostered by the staff, the parties also requested a ruling from the staff approving the proposed order of procedure.

The Motion for Ruling is hereby GRANTED and the proposal detailed therein is approved as follows:

- A. Upon receipt of the Best and Final Offers, the parties will consult and try to reach agreement on a proposed schedule for the filing of (i) AT&T's amended or revised complaint, (ii) iWireless' answer, and (iii) AT&T's reply.
- B. By Friday December 11, 2015, the parties will submit a joint letter either setting forth the schedule they have agreed upon and jointly propose, or, if they cannot agree, setting forth the individual proposals by AT&T and iWireless as to the proposed schedule to be adopted by Commission staff for this proceeding.
- C. Consistent with the schedule approved by Commission staff, AT&T will file either an amended or revised complaint that addresses the Best and Final Offers.
- D. iWireless' Motion to Compel AT&T Compliance with Confidentiality Orders and for Related Relief will be held in abeyance pending submission of AT&T's amended or revised complaint. To the extent the specific references in the current complaint to which iWireless' Motion was directed are removed from AT&T's amended or revised complaint, the iWireless Motion to Compel will be withdrawn.

In addition, we note that in the Joint Status Report, the parties stated that they have reached agreement that certain documents from the arbitration will be assembled and filed with the Commission in this proceeding. We direct the parties to file the arbitration documents listed in the Joint Status Report as soon as possible. If only some of the listed documents are currently available, the parties should file those documents that are available immediately, and follow up with additional filings as other documents become available.
