

60001354125.txt

I like the One American News and other independent entities for my news and Media information. A big conglomerate should NOT be able to take over and/or dispose of any independent companies. America was built upon freedom of speech, religion, etc including companies to become independent to share information to their viewers as they see fit within the confines of the law.