

60001354430.txt

I support these cable mergers, provided these large corporations are compelled to include independent programming services. In particular, news and political views are topics should be proportionally represented in the markets these cable operators serve.