

60001354747.txt

Really! Remove one of the few independent news stations we have left? Get real and leave these stations alone! Little enough to watch, especially when network news is a farce. No one I know watches or believes the talking heads.

Cable TV is bad enough right now and we certainly do not want another merger, especially with Charter, a failure company with many bankruptcies, to decide what we can watch! It will be time to cancel.