

60001388598.txt

I sincerely hope the FCC does not allow companies such as Time Warner/Charter to basically censor/deny the 1st Amendment rights for any reason be it ideological or political. There is quite enough manipulation taking place in the background.

We are at risk of losing our Founding Fathers principles and what makes America Great...now. If we are going to be sensitive to views and opinions of all, then let's do just that...be sensitive to the views and opinions of ALL.

Respectfully