

60001389435.txt

Bigger cable companies are horrible for the consumer. Having first hand watched Time Warner swallow smaller cable companies please stop this merger. Upon each acquisition Time Warner raised prices and reduced channel options. In many markets Time Warner became the only cable option unless one went to a satellite provider. Letting this merger go through just increases the magnitude of the issue. The new cable mega-giant company will raise prices and prevent new programming like One American News Network and AWE channel.