

60001390124.txt

I want internet service providers classified as common carriers. Do not allow the internet to be controlled by wealthy companies and therefore strip the internet of its content sharing freedom. Please look into what the UK and Canada have done towards net neutrality and create a law that protects the internet instead of shackling it to giant companies.