

60001391005.txt

Independent privately owned businesses including tv networks are foundation of all America and its ways of life. Cancel this network would be a travesty and would in fairness cause many others to be cancelled. I can only assume this network is targeted due to its reporting practices that are unfavorable sometimes to the Democratic regime trying to corrupt our thoughts to those of big companies.