

60001391191.txt

I believe in the constitution of free speech. News station's should be able to report the news for what it is and not be told how to report it to force the stations political views upon its listeners. Everyone is entitled to their views but there needs to be a balance in truth of reporting.